- surrenders your resident license with that state. Then, you may apply for a resident Indiana license online through either www.sircon.com or www.nipr.com, or by submitting the uniform NAIC paper application (available at www.naic.org/paper\_licensing/maps\_paper\_licensing.htm) and fee by check or money order made payable to Indiana Department of Insurance. You must submit the Letter of Clearance with the application.
- Many other states require a Letter of Clearance to transfer a resident license. To obtain a clearance letter from the IDOI please submit the Service Request Form to the department.

- How do I renew my producer license?

- You may renew your license online at www.sircon.com or www.nipr.com or by mailing the uniform NAIC paper renewal application and fee by check or money order made payable to Indiana Department of Insurance. - Renewal invoices are generated and emailed as a courtesy 60 days in advance of the license expiration date.
- I tried to renew through Sircon, but it couldn't find my invoice.
  - Start from the Sircon home page, select "Renew or Reinstate a License," select Individual or Firm, enter your email address, then select the "Search for a specific license" link.
  - If your license has become inactive within the past year you will need to reinstate it; do not reapply.

  - Renewal reminders are sent by email only.
    - If you do not have a correct business email address on file with the department, no notice will be sent. There is a possibility of an address violation for failure to notify the department of an email address.

*Renewal notices are sent as a courtesy by the department. It is the responsibility of producers to complete any required continuing education and submit their online renewal applications on time.***

- If you have completed all continuing education requirements for your license and are within 30 days of your expiration date, your renewal invoice will still be open online to be paid.
